3. To facilitate compliance with a law, regulation, or covenant, e.g. external audit.
4. To facilitate basic operating functions, e.g., utilities, IT Network.
5. A critical item for which a delay in replacement or repair [illegible]