

~~UAF is committed to providing access to all students and is committed to providing UAF faculty class attendance policies set by General Absences: If you miss class, you are responsible for conferring with your instructor as soon as possible concerning represent UAF in an official capacity (e.g., NCAA athletic competition, music performance) notify your instructor in writing by the first Wednesday within the first five class days of the semester~~

---

~~signature of a UAF official. The notification should list all scheduled absences and bear the~~

~~participation in the official UAF recognized activities. How do you determine if a student's absence is due to a medical condition or a personal obligation? (e.g., family emergency, religious observance, etc.) Do you have any policies in place to ensure comparable learning opportunities that would enable you to be successful in the class.~~

Effective: Spring 2017

Rationale: Due to schedule alignment across the UA system, UAF classes now start on a Monday instead of a Thursday, giving students just two class days before the semester begins.