

Andy suggested that a letter from the Deans of the College and their views on the benefit rate calculation would be helpful. That maybe would help influence the decision.

