Staff Affairs Committee Report
 April 12, 2000

The Staff Affairs Committee met and has the following report:

1. LWOP

Evelyn Brown has reported to the Staff Affairs committee concerns regarding LWOP and how it relates to individuals in research positions. Problem is these individuals, generally in term-funded positions, have to be terminated in between finding/securing new funds. This has created low morale and loss of extremely good employees. Also of concern is the JEF process. It was decided to invite Janet Jacob's and the new Statewide analyst to next meeting to discuss our concerns.

We would like to hear the progress being made on re-classification, as well as having an opportunity to have some input.

An e-mail will go out to Staff Council representatives asking for input regarding LWOP and JEF by May 1st.

2. Draft Reg. 03.01.01

Committee will forward to Staff Council with a recommendation to accept. Proposed regulation mirror's policy; no changes suggested.

3. New chair selection-Lydia

Lydia is not planning to continue as chair starting in September 2000. Gabrielle was elected as chair. A recorder will volunteer/be selected at the May meeting.

4. Comments

Parker reported that constituents from his unit have voiced an interest in converting unused sick leave to PERS system. Previous information says such a plan would be difficult to implement; committee will consult with Mike Humphreys. Parker will clarify the conversion, time or dollars.

5. Next meeting is Wednesday, May 31, 2000 at 2:30 p.m. in Wood Center Conference Room B.

The presentation was very informative and a tape of the proceedings will be shared with attending rural sites and others upon request.

Dates for the fall Rural Affairs meetings will be available by September. Items of concern to be discussed next term: ergonomics, communication regarding site allocations and other support tips for shared CRA/UALC distance delivered courses.

Participation in Rural Affairs by CRA staff has been very active this year. However, we invite and urge all other rural programs to participate in our meetings so that we can better share ideas, projects and concerns.
